SORNA Substantial Implementation Review Chitimacha Tribe of Louisiana

The U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs, Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking (SMART) would like to thank the Chitimacha Tribe for the extensive work that has gone into its effort to substantially implement Title I of the Adam Walsh Act, the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (SORNA). The SMART Office has completed its review of the Chitimacha Tribe's SORNA substantial implementation packet and has found that the Chitimacha Tribe has substantially implemented SORNA

On May 31, 2011, the Chitimacha Tribe submitted a substantial implementation package that included several exhibits, including background information on the Chitimacha Tribe and its criminal justice system, courts, and police department; policies and procedures regarding sex offender registration; the Chitimacha Tribe's sex offender registration law; and other relevant additional laws. They provided forms and memoranda of agreement with other law enforcement agencies. In addition, the SMART Office had email and telephone correspondence with Trisha Mestayer, Division Administrator.

Our review of these materials follows the outline of the SMART Office Substantial Implementation Checklist-Revised, which contains 14 relevant sections addressing the SORNA requirements. Under each section, we indicate that the Chitimacha Tribe meets the SORNA requirements of that section.
